

Factsheet 2 of 4 Access to Services

Disability is defined as interactions between personal and environmental factors. It is measured by the level of functioning of a person in various areas of daily activities (called "domains") regardless of impairments, using the Washington Group tools.

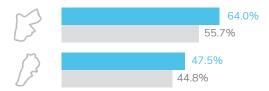

Households with at least one member with disabilities

Households without any members with disabilities

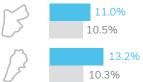

ACCESSIBILITY OF SHELTER AND LATRINE

ALL sureveyed households have shelter or house except for 4 families in Zaatari camp in Jordan waiting for the delivery of caravans

Percentage of households reporting that it is NOT easy to move around the house

Percentage of households reporting their latrine are NOT accessible

66

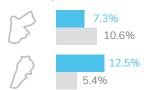

Households with member(s) with disabilities face greater difficulties in moving around house and using latrines

99

SAFE WATER

Percentage of households reporting NO access to enough safe water from reliable sources

Households with member(s) with disabilities in Lebanon are significantly less likely to access safe water than households without any members with disabilities (p<0.01)

→ Barriers to access safe water

Identified by families who do not have access to safe water (multiple answers)

60.5%

Lebanon o

Service not meeting my/family's needs Service not available Service too expensive

15.6%

Service not available Service too expensive Service not meeting my/family's needs

59.4%

25.0%

1nr

72.7% 54.5%

27.3%

Service not meeting my/family's needs

Service not available Service too expensive Service not available Service too expensive Service not meeting my/family's needs

\circ Priority solutions for increased access to safe water \circ

Cost reduction for services
Supportive staff
Tailored services
Availability of services

Cost reduction for services

Tailored services

Availability of services

Information about available services

Availability of

Availability of services
Cost reduction for services
Tailored services

HEALTH Percentage of households reporting medical needs in the last 6 months and access to health services Lebanon Jordan Households with at least Households without any Households with at least Households without any one member with disabilities members with disabilities one member with disabilities members with disabilities 81.5% 82.0% 18.4% 18.5% 59.1% 89.6% 247 120 75 361 79 56 83 644 Medical needs No medical needs In the last 6 months 17.4% 15.8% Have access 76 43 26 Have no access 82.6% 38.2% 34.2% 92.8% 204 101 335 \circ Barriers to access health services \circ Identified by families who do not have access to health services when needed (multiple answers) Jordan o Lebanon ○-61.8% 55.3% 95.3% 48.8% Service Service Transportation Service Transportation Service not available too expensive too expensive too expensive too expensive not available 73.1% 30.8% 15.4% 78.9% 42.1% 26.3%

Availability of services Cost reduction for SERVICES Supportive staff Support to required documents

Service not available

Cost reduction for services

Service too

Service not meeting

ailability of services for services

Cost reduction ost reduction for transportation Supportive staff

Service

Availability of services Cost reduction tor services

Information about available services Supportive staff

Service

not available

SPECIALIZED SERVICES

Of 1,903 persons with disabilities, 25.5% in Jordan and 57.5% in Lebanon require specialized services but cannot access them.

Physio, occupational or speech therapy Assistive Devices Mental health/ psychosocial support

Strong needs among people aged 5-34 years

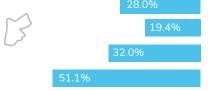

Key specialized services needed but not accessible

Transportation

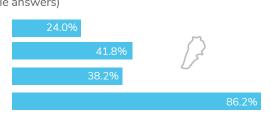

not accessible

Barriers to access specialized services

Identified by families who do not have access to specialized services (multiple answers)

Service not avaliable Don't know where the service is avaliable Transportation too expensive Services are too expensive

For further information

